EQUALITY POLICY

The Nene Valley Partnership is committed to advancing equality and an appreciation of the value of diversity in all aspects of educational provision and as part of a safe and inclusive workplace.

Our Trust aims to meet its obligations under the public sector equality duty by having due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate discrimination and other conduct that is prohibited by the Equality Act 2010
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it
- Foster good relations across all characteristics – between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

All Nene Valley Partnership schools are committed to helping children and students of every circumstance, background and characteristic, to achieve their true potential, and make the most of the opportunities offered by an excellent education.

We are also committed to ensuring that our pupils and students appreciate the rewards and responsibilities of positive citizenship, both locally and globally. We will provide opportunities to explore and appreciate diversity and equality in order that our children are able to uphold and promote fundamental values and be ready to take their place as positive members of British society.

Our Legal Duties

Legislation relating to equality and discrimination is laid out in the Equality Act 2010.

This legislation covers employment (work), the provision of services and public functions and education. Employers (schools, the 'Trust') are liable for discriminatory acts of their employees if they did not take reasonable steps to prevent such acts.

Employees can be liable for acts (where an employer took reasonable steps to prevent such acts).

The 'Protected Characteristics' within equality law are:

- Age
- Disability
- Gender reassignment
- Marriage and civil partnership
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Race
- Religion and belief
- Sex
- Sexual orientation

‘Prohibited Conduct’ (acts that are unlawful):

- Direct discrimination – Examples: Less favourable treatment because of a protected characteristic.
- Indirect discrimination – Examples: A provision, criterion or practice that puts a person at a particular disadvantage and is not a proportionate means of achieving a legitimate aim.
- Harassment – Examples: Conduct which has the purpose or effect of violating dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment. It includes harassment by a third party (e.g. customer or contractor) in the employment context.
- Victimisation - Subjecting a person to a detriment because of their involvement with proceedings (a complaint) brought in connection with this Act.
- Discrimination arising from disability - Treating someone unfavourably because of something connected with their disability (such as periods of absence from work or medical conditions) and failure to make reasonable adjustments.
- Gender reassignment discrimination – Examples: Not allowing reasonable absence from work for the purpose of gender-reassignment in line with normal provision (such as sick leave).
- Pregnancy/maternity related discrimination – Examples: Unfavourable treatment because of pregnancy or maternity. It includes unfavourable treatment of a woman or girl because she is breastfeeding.
- Discrimination by association or perception – Examples: Discriminating against someone because they “look gay”, or because they have a gay brother; discriminating against someone because they care for a disabled relative.

Public Sector Duties (applies to schools):

As the Nene Valley Partnership (the ‘Trust’) and in each of our schools, we will, in the exercise of our functions, give due regard to the need to (in relation to protected characteristics above):

1. Seek to eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other prohibited conduct.
2. Advance equality of opportunity (removes or minimise disadvantage; meet people’s needs; take account of disabilities; encourage participation in public life).
3. Foster good relations between people (tackle prejudice and promote understanding).

In practice, ‘due regard’ means giving relevant and proportionate consideration to the duty, so decision makers in schools must have due regard when making a decision, developing a policy or taking an action as to whether it may have implications for people because of their protected characteristics.

The Nene Valley Partnership and all Trust Schools will:

- Take reasonable steps to avoid disadvantage caused by a provision, criterion or practice or a physical feature that puts a disabled person at a substantial disadvantage compared to a non-disabled person. This involves removing or avoiding a physical feature - for example steps and providing features such as ramps and/or lifts where necessary.
- Take reasonable steps to provide auxiliary aids/services.
- Provide information in an accessible format.
- Develop and implement (by allocating appropriate resources) Accessibility Plans which will:
 1. Increase disabled pupils' access to the school curriculum
 2. Improve the physical environment
 3. Improve provision of information.

The duty is an anticipatory and continuing one that schools owe to disabled pupils generally, regardless of whether the school knows that a particular pupil is disabled or whether the school currently has disabled pupils. In all Nene Valley Partnership Schools, we will plan ahead for the reasonable adjustments that we may need to make, working with the relevant admissions authority as appropriate.

The Education and Inspections Act 2006 introduced a duty on all maintained schools in England to promote community cohesion.

Responsibilities:

Nene Valley Partnership Trust Board will:

- Ensure that the Governing Boards of all Trust schools adopt this policy.
- Ensure that Governing Boards establish equality objectives as appropriate to their setting and monitor these as part of the regular evaluative cycle.

Governing Boards will:

- Ensure that the school complies with equality-related legislation.
- Ensure that the policy and its procedures are implemented by the Headteacher / Head of School.
- Ensure all other school policies promote equality.
- Give due regard to the Public Sector Equality Duty when making decisions.
- Set and evaluate appropriate equality objectives as appropriate to the context of the school.

Headteacher / Head of School:

- Implement the policy and its related procedures.
- Make all staff aware of their responsibilities and provide training as appropriate to enable them to effectively deliver this policy.
- Take appropriate action in any case of actual or potential discrimination.
- Ensure that all staff understand their duties regarding recruitment and providing reasonable adjustments to staff. It is unlawful for an employer to enquire about the health of an applicant for a job until a job offer has been made, unless the questions are specifically related to an intrinsic function of the work - for example ensuring that applicants for a PE teaching post have the physical capability to carry out the duties. Schools should no longer require job applicants to complete a generic health questionnaire. Neither should a school seek out past sickness records until they have made a job offer.
- Ensure that all staff and pupils are aware of the process for reporting and following up bullying and prejudice-related incidents.

All staff:

- Enact this policy, its commitments and procedures, and their responsibilities associated with this policy.
- Deal with bullying and discriminatory incidents and know how to identify and challenge prejudice and stereotyping.
- Promote equality and good relations and not discriminate on any grounds.
- Attend such training and information opportunities as necessary to enact this policy and keep up to date with equality legislation.
- To be models of equal opportunities through their words and actions.

Students and Pupils:

- Refrain from engaging in discriminatory behaviour or any other behaviour that contravenes this policy.
- Engage in educational activities which advance their knowledge and understanding of equality, diversity and inclusivity.

Visitors (e.g. parent helpers, contractors):

- To be aware of, and comply with, the school's equality duties.
- To refrain from engaging in direct or indirect discriminatory behaviour.

Appendix 1

Definitions:

Equality: This is more clearly defined as equality of opportunity and outcome, rather than equality of treatment. This means treating people fairly and according to their needs as some people may need to be treated differently in order to achieve an equal outcome.

Inclusive: Making sure everyone can participate, whatever their background or circumstances.

Diversity: Recognising that we are all different. Diversity is an outcome of equality and inclusion.

Cohesion: People from different backgrounds getting on well together (good community relations). There is a shared vision and sense of purpose or belonging. Diversity is valued. Relationships are strong, supportive and sustainable. Cohesion is an outcome of equality and inclusion.

Community: From the school's perspective, the term "community" has a number of meanings:

- The school community – the students we serve, their families and the school's staff.
- The community within which the school is located – in its geographical community, and the people who live and/or work in that area.
- The community of Britain – all schools by definition are part of it.
- The global community – formed by European and international links.

Gender Dysphoria: Gender dysphoria is a recognised condition in which a person feels that there is a mismatch between their biological sex and their gender identity. Biological sex is assigned at birth, depending on the appearance of the infant. Gender identity is the gender that a person "identifies" with or feels themselves to be.

Equality Policy

Our Equalities Policy is in line with national guidance and contains information about how the school/Trust complies with the Public Sector Equality Duty. We also give guidance to staff and outside visitors on our approach to promoting equality.

Equality objectives are specific to each school within the Nene Valley Partnership.
